1. Any Issues?

- Jay Worth brought up the issue that the trees around the street lights need trimming. The city will be contacted to trim the trees.
- Mike Potter brought up the issue that the web site that has all the OHHA records is not an “official” web site. (Note: The web site that does contain all the OHHA records is owned by the secretary, Russell Case, and has all the records that can be posted (no financial information nor attorney-client privileged data) There is no requirement for an “official” site, and previous attempts to create one were met with costs that nobody, including the members of OHHA want to bear. The secretary has created this web site as a courtesy to the membership and the records are kept up to date.)
- When the budget line items were brought up, one of them was the attorney. Mike Potter commented that the attorney was previously “voted out” but that is not accurate. The OHHA attorney is Barbara Stage, Esq.
- Jay Worth suggested a “Welcoming Committee” for new homeowners and Jeremy Brown volunteered to handle this.
- Jeremy Brown alerted those in attendance that the Oviedo Police Department has been in the neighborhood because there have been suspicious activities in the surrounding areas. Please keep alert to suspicious vehicles and people. Call the Oviedo Police Department to report any suspicious activity.

Adjournment: 5:22 P.M.
